1. The Czechoslovak government has exerted pressure on the presidium of the Jewish Community in Czechoslovakia to initiate a rally of Jews of all the "People's Democracies" with the purpose of protesting against German rearmament. The rally would be convened in Prague, and fraternal delegations from countries outside the Iron Curtain would be invited.
2. To date, the Jewish Community has been able to turn the authorities aside by various excuses; however, if pressure is continued, it may be forced to yield and agree to the government's "suggestion".
